

The United Benefice of Warton and Borwick with Yealand

The Fourth Sunday after Trinity

The Eucharist

(livestream Sunday 5th July)

A very warm welcome to everyone who is joining us “virtually” online via our YouTube channel.

Presiding Minister: The Revd Robin Figg, Vicar

First reading: Jane Parsons (recorded at her home)

Gospel reading: Kate Waddington (recorded at her home)

Intercessions: Alan Thompson (recorded at his home)

This is a service of Holy Communion. The term ‘Spiritual Communion’ has been used historically to describe the means of grace by which a person, prevented for some reason from sharing in a celebration of the Eucharist, nonetheless shares in the communion of Jesus Christ. The Church of which we are members is not defined by the walls of a building, but by the Body of Christ to which we belong. In making our communion spiritually we are joining with Christians everywhere to be nourished by the one who tells us, ‘I am the bread of life’.

Music before the service

Morning glory, starlit sky William Hubert Vanstone (1923-1999)

Great is thy faithfulness Thomas O Chisholm (1866-1960)

Both performed by the Choral Scholars of St Martin-in-the-Fields

The Gathering

The people are welcomed.

The Greeting

The presiding minister says

We meet in the name of the living God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Prayers of Penitence

A minister introduces the confession with these words

Let us confess our sin in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God's commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

We confess that we have insisted on our own rightness rather than face our frailty.

Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

We confess that we have exhausted ourselves in our own strength rather than ask for God's help.

Christ, have mercy.

All Christ, have mercy.

We confess that we have run ahead in our own wisdom rather than wait for God's word.

Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

The presiding minister pronounces the absolution

Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon us, pardon and deliver us from all our sin, confirm and strengthen us in all goodness, and keep us in life eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The following is said

All Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect

The presiding minister introduces a period of silent prayer

God our Saviour, look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

Reading

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

An acclamation heralds the Gospel reading using the following words

Alleluia, alleluia.

Open our hearts, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son.

All Alleluia.

When the Gospel is announced the reader says

The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

After the sermon we keep a short time of quiet.

The Creed

Let us declare our faith in God.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The presiding minister introduces the prayers with these words

In the power of the Spirit and in union with Christ, let us pray to the Lord.

The prayers include the response

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

and end with

Merciful Father,

All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The presiding minister introduces the Peace with these or other suitable words

Jesus has come into the world to bring peace with God that the world cannot provide. Let us receive and share this precious gift.

The peace of the Lord be always with you

All and also with you.

At this point in our services in church we would receive a collection, the offering of our financial gifts in support of the mission & ministry of God's Church. Take a moment now to reflect prayerfully on your giving.

God of grace,
in our time of darkness
you bless us with gifts of light.
We bring our offerings to you - our gifts at home, our gifts online - and with them we offer our lives;
that they may be used to serve others,
and give you glory.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayer over the bread and wine

The presiding minister takes the bread and wine.

Lord,
look with love on our service.
Accept the gifts we bring and help us to grow in Christian love.

All Amen.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The presiding minister says

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

The presiding minister praises God for God's mighty acts and all respond

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The presiding minister recalls the Last Supper and this acclamation is used

Great is the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The prayer continues and leads into the doxology, to which all respond boldly

...for ever and ever.

All Amen.

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray.

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The presiding minister breaks the consecrated bread.

As Christ breaks bread with us.

All he enfolds our story in his story.

Agnus Dei

The Agnus Dei is said

All Jesus, Lamb of God,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sin,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world,
grant us peace.

The presiding minister says the following invitation to communion

Jesus said, 'Come to me, all who are weary and whose load is heavy; I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble-hearted; and you will find rest for your souls'. Matthew 11.28-29

The presiding minister receives communion.

Those sharing the service from their homes are invited to give thanks for the saving death and resurrection of Jesus and ask him to be with them now.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given me, for all the pains and insults you have borne for me.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,

I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.

O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother,

may I know you more clearly,

love you more dearly,

and follow you more nearly,

day by day. Amen.

After the Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

Prayer after Communion

The presiding minister says the Post Communion prayer.

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

All Amen.

The following prayer is said

All Father of all,

we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off

you met us in your Son and brought us home.

Dying and living, he declared your love,

gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.
May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us, so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Dismissal

Hymn I heard the voice of Jesus say

I heard the voice of Jesus say:
'Come unto Me and rest;
Lay down, O weary one, lay down
Your head upon my breast.'
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary and worn and sad,
I found in him a resting place,
And he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say:
'Behold I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down and drink and live.'
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say:
'I am this dark world's light;
Look unto Me, the dawn shall rise,
And all your day be bright.'

I looked to Jesus, and I found
In him my Star, my Sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk Till travelling days are done

the power of the Holy Spirit set you free;
and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

All Amen.

Let us go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All In the name of Christ. Amen.
