The Seventh Sunday of Easter

The Eucharist

(livestreamed Sunday 24th May)

A very warm welcome to everyone who is joining us “virtually” online via our YouTube channel.

Presiding Minister: The Revd Robin Figg, Vicar

First reading: Kate Waddington (recorded at her home)

Gospel reading: Joyce Tombs (recorded at her home)

Intercessions: Pam Bentley (recorded at her home)

This is a service of Holy Communion. The term ‘Spiritual Communion’ has been used historically to describe the means of grace by which a person, prevented for some reason from sharing in a celebration of the Eucharist, nonetheless shares in the communion of Jesus Christ. The Church of which we are members is not defined by the walls of a building, but by the Body of Christ to which we belong. In making our communion spiritually we are joining with Christians everywhere to be nourished by the one who tells us, ‘I am the bread of life’.

Music before the service

The head that once was crowned in thorns Thomas Kelly (1769-1855)

Crown him with many crowns Matthew Bridges (1800-1894)

Both performed by the Choir of St Martin-in-the-fields

The Gathering

The people are welcomed.

The Greeting

The presiding minister says

We meet in the name of the living God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The presiding minister continues

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

This acclamation follows

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

All He is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Prayers of Penitence

A minister introduces the confession with these words

What God has prepared for those who love him, he has revealed us through the Spirit for the Spirit searches everyone.

Therefore, let us in penitence open our hearts to the Lord, who has prepared good things for those who love him. 1 Corinthians 2.9.10

You raise the dead to life in the Spirit.

Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

You bring pardon and peace to the broken in heart.

Christ, have mercy.

All Christ, have mercy.

You make one by your Spirit the torn and divided.

Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

The presiding minister pronounces the absolution

May the God of love and power forgive us and free us from our sin, heal and strengthen us by his Spirit and raise us to new life in Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Gloria

The following is to be said

All Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The Collect

The presiding minister introduces a period of silent prayer

Risen, ascended Lord, as we rejoice at your triumph,
fill your Church on earth with power and compassion, that all who are estranged by sin may find forgiveness and know your peace,
to the glory of God the Father.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

Reading

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

An acclamation heralds the Gospel reading using the following words

Alleluia, alleluia.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful people and kindle in them the fire of your love.

All Alleluia.

When the Gospel is announced the reader says

The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

After the sermon we keep a short time of quiet.

The Creed

Let us affirm our faith in Jesus Christ the Son of God.

All Though he was divine, he did not cling to equality with God, but made himself nothing.

Taking the form of a slave, he was born in human likeness.

He humbled himself and was obedient to death,

even the death of the cross.
Therefore God has raised him on high,
and given him the name above every name:
that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
and every voice proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The presiding minister introduces the prayers with these words

Through Christ, who ever lives to make intercession for us, let us prayer for the Lord.

The prayers include the response

Lord, in your mercy,
All hear our prayer.

and end with

Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The presiding minister introduces the Peace with these or other suitable words

God has made us one in Christ. He has set his seal upon us and, as a pledge of what is to come, has given the Spirit to dwell in our hearts. Alleluia.

cf 2 Corinthians 1.22

The peace of the risen Lord be always with you
All and also with you.

Preparation of the Table Taking of the Bread and Wine

The table is prepared and bread and wine are placed upon it.

Music during the preparation: Go forth into the world Sung by St Oswald's Church Choir

At this point in our services in church we would receive a collection, the offering of our financial gifts in support of the mission & ministry of God's Church. Take a moment now to reflect prayerfully on your giving.

God of grace,
in our time of darkness
you bless us with gifts of light.
We bring our offerings to you - our gifts at home, our gifts online - and with them we offer our lives;
that they may be used to serve others,
and give you glory.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayer over the bread and wine

The presiding minister takes the bread and wine.

Risen Lord Jesus,
we believe you, and all we have heard is true.
When we break bread
may we recognize you as the fire that burns within us, that we may bring light to you world.

All Amen.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The presiding minister says

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

The presiding minister praises God for God's mighty acts and all respond

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The presiding minister recalls the Last Supper and this acclamation is used

Jesus Christ is Lord:

All Lord, by your cross and resurrection
you have set us free.
You are the Saviour of the world.

The prayer continues and leads into the doxology, to which all respond boldly

...for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Being made one by the power of the Spirit, as our Saviour taught us, so we pray.

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The presiding minister breaks the consecrated bread.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

Agnus Dei

The Agnus Dei is said

All Jesus, Lamb of God,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sin,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world,
grant us peace.

Giving of Communion

The presiding minister says the following invitation to communion

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The presiding minister receives communion.

Those sharing the service from their homes are invited to give thanks for the saving death and resurrection of Jesus and ask him to be with them now.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given me, for all the pains and insults you have borne for me.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.

O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly,
love you more dearly,
and follow you more nearly,
day by day.

Amen.

After the Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

Silence is kept.

The presiding minister says the Post Communion prayer.

Eternal God, giver of love and power, your Son Jesus Christ has sent us into all the world to preach the gospel of his kingdom:
confirm us in this mission,
and help us to live the good news we proclaim;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The following prayer is said

All Father of all,
we give you thanks and praise, that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living, he declared your love, gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.
May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Dismissal

Hymn Hail the day that sees him rise, alleluia!

Hail the day that sees him rise, alleluia!
Glorious to his native skies; alleluia!
Christ, awhile to mortals giv'n, alleluia!
Enters now the highest heav'n! Alleluia!

There the glorious triumph waits; alleluia!
Lift your heads, eternal gates! Alleluia!
Christ has vanquished death and sin; alleluia!
Take the King of glory in. Alleluia!

There we shall with thee remain, alleluia!
Partners of thine endless reign; alleluia!
There thy face unclouded see, alleluia!
Find our heav'n of heav'ns in thee. Alleluia!

*Charles Wesley (1707-1788) and Thomas Cotterill (1779-1823) and others .
Sung by the choir of St Martin-in-the-fields CCLI 2193907*

Blessing and Dismissal

The presiding minister pronounces the blessing using the following words

The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, through the power of the Holy Spirit;
and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be with you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Let us go in the peace of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.

All Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

The ministers and people depart.
