The Second Sunday of Lent

The Eucharist

(livestream Sunday 28th February)

A very warm welcome to everyone who is joining us “virtually” online via our YouTube channel.

Presiding Minister: The Revd Robin Figg, Vicar

First reading: Kate Waddington (recorded at home)

Gospel reading: Dave Scott (recorded at home)

Sermon: Annette MacKenzie (live in church)

Intercessions: Pam Bentley (recorded at home)

This is a service of Holy Communion. The term ‘Spiritual Communion’ has been used historically to describe the means of grace by which a person, prevented for some reason from sharing in a celebration of the Eucharist, nonetheless shares in the communion of Jesus Christ. The Church of which we are members is not defined by the walls of a building, but by the Body of Christ to which we belong. In making our communion spiritually we are joining with Christians everywhere to be nourished by the one who tells us, ‘I am the bread of life’.

Music before the service

Father hear the prayer we offer Love M. Whitcomb Willis (1824-1908) Samuel Longfellow (1819-1892) Sung by St Martin’s Voices

Great is thy faithfulness Thomas O Chisholm (1866-1960) Sung by the Choral Scholars of St Martin-in-the-Fields

The Gathering

The people are welcomed.

The Greeting

The presiding minister says

We meet in the name of the living God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

A symbol of the Passion is placed at the Cross.

Prayers of Penitence

A minister introduces the confession with these words

The sacrifice of God is a broken spirit;
a broken and contrite heart God will not despise.
Let us come to the Lord, who is full of compassion, and acknowledge our transgressions in penitence and faith.

When we put our own desires before the Kingdom:
Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

When we fail to trust God with our lives:
Christ, have mercy.

All Christ, have mercy.

When we fail to value ourselves as God values us:
Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

The presiding minister pronounces the absolution

May the God of love and power forgive us and free us from our sin, heal and strengthen us by his Spirit,
and raise us to new life in Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Collect

The presiding minister introduces a period of silent prayer

Almighty God,
by the prayer and discipline of Lent
may we enter into the mystery of Christ's sufferings, and by following in his Way
come to share in his glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Word

Reading

At the end the reader says

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

An acclamation heralds the Gospel reading using the following words

Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

The Lord is a great God, O that today you would listen to his voice.

Harden not your hearts.

cf Psalm 95.3,8

All Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

When the Gospel is announced the reader says

The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

After the sermon we keep a short time of quiet.

The Creed

Having heard and received God's word for us today, let us now declare our faith in God.

All We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The presiding minister introduces the prayers with these words

With confidence and trust, let us pray to the Lord.

The prayers include the response

Lord, in your mercy,

All hear our prayer.

and end with

Merciful Father,
receive these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The presiding minister introduces the Peace with these or other suitable words

Since we are justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who has given us access to his grace.

Romans 5.1,2

The peace of the Lord be always with you

All and also with you.

Preparation of the Table Taking of the Bread and Wine

The table is prepared and bread and wine are placed upon it.

Music during the preparation: This is the body of Christ – John L Bell (b1949) © 1999 GIA Productions Sung by the Wild Goose Worship Group

At this point in our services in church we would receive a collection, the offering of our financial gifts in support of the mission & ministry of God's Church. Take a moment now to reflect prayerfully on your giving.

God of grace,
in our time of darkness
you bless us with gifts of light.
We bring our offerings to you - our gifts at home, our gifts online - and with them we offer our lives;
that they may be used to serve others,
and give you glory.

We make our prayer in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Prayer over the bread and wine

The presiding minister takes the bread and wine.

God of our journey,
as we walk with you on your path of obedience, sustain us on our way and lead us to your glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The presiding minister says

The Lord be with you

All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

The presiding minister praises God for God's mighty acts and all respond

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The presiding minister recalls the Last Supper and this acclamation is used

Great is the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The prayer continues and leads into the doxology, to which all respond boldly

...for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Trusting in the compassion of God, as our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The presiding minister breaks the consecrated bread.

As Christ breaks bread with us.

All he enfolds our story in his story.

Agnus Dei

The Agnus Dei is said

All Jesus, Lamb of God,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sin,
have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world,
grant us peace.

Giving of Communion

The presiding minister says the following invitation to communion

Jesus said, 'Come to me, all who are weary and whose load is heavy; I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble-hearted; and you will find rest for your souls'. Matthew 11.28-29

The presiding minister receives communion.

Those sharing the service from their homes are invited to give thanks for the saving death and resurrection of Jesus and ask him to be with them now.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given me, for all the pains and insults you have borne for me.

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.

O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly,
love you more dearly,
and follow you more nearly,
day by day. Amen.

After the Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

The presiding minister says the Post Communion prayer.

Almighty God,
you see that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves:
keep us both outwardly in our bodies,
and inwardly in our souls;
that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The following prayer is said

All Father of all,
we give you thanks and praise,
that when we were still far off
you met us in your Son and brought us home.
Dying and living, he declared your love,
gave us grace, and opened the gate of glory.
May we who share Christ's body live his risen life;
we who drink his cup bring life to others;
we whom the Spirit lights give light to the world.
Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Dismissal

Notices

Hymn Light of the minds that know him

Light of the minds that know him, may Christ be light to mine!
My sun in risen splendour,
my light of truth divine;
my guide in doubt and darkness,
my true and living way,
my clear light ever shining,
my dawn of heaven's day.

Strength of the wills that serve him,
may Christ be strength to me,
who stilled the storm and tempest,
who calmed the tossing sea;
his Spirit's power to move me,
his will to master mine,
his cross to carry daily and conquer in his sign.

May it be ours to know him
that we may truly love, and loving, fully serve him
as serve the saints above;
till in that home of glory with fadeless splendour bright, we serve in perfect freedom
our strength, our life, our light.

The presiding minister pronounces the blessing using the following words

The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Christ give you grace to grow in holiness,
to deny yourselves, take your cross, and follow him;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be with you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Let us go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All In the name of Christ. Amen.

The ministers and people depart.
