

Notices from across the Benefice

Any items for next week's sheet to Angela Sewell, alsewell@btinternet.com by Wednesday please.

Rev Alice is running her first marathon in Manchester on April 14th in aid of the fantastic Eco Lighting project at St Mary's. Further details and sponsorship link can be found on the Benefice Homepage.

Breaking Bread

There will be no meal after the 11.00 a.m. Eucharist on 4th and 11th April at St Oswald's. Meals will recommence on the 18th April. We need regular drivers to offer lifts for a number of guests. Please contact Annette if you can help.

Young Generations @ St Oswald's

Our group for young people aged 9+ meet 7th April from 6-8pm at St Oswald's. We meet for food, play some great games together and think of ways we can help our community and the world.

Heating

Careful control of the St Oswald's boiler (aided by a milder winter) has reduced the heating bill by over £1900 (23%), equating to almost 4 tonnes less emitted carbon dioxide. Thanks to all for your forbearance. Trevor Blease

Revision of Electoral Roll

The Electoral Roll for each church to be revised between 14th and the 27th April. If your details need updating, correcting or wish to be added, forms can be found at the back of each church.

Request for donations

Hampers are going to be made up for raffle prizes at the Hymns and Pimm's event in May. If you are able, please donate items that can be included. There's a collection box at the back of St Oswald's. Thank you.
